

City of San José Department of Housing WelcomeHOME Loan Assistance Program

The Program

The Welcome Home Loan Assistance Program offers a loan up to $25,000 for down payment assistance at 3% simple interest. In mid-October, the City of San Jose increased the funding for Welcome Home by an additional $500,000. Once the funds have been exhausted, the program may be terminated.

Borrower Eligibility

- The household income cannot be greater than the amount shown below. Household income is the income received from all household members, including adult children and non-applicant spouses:

Household Size	Maximum Qualifying Income
1	$ 59,400
2	67,900
3	76,400
4	84,900
5	91,650

- Teachers who are eligible for the San José Teacher Homebuyer Program and faculty and staff members who are eligible for the SJSU Faculty and Staff Homebuyer Program may receive additional down payment assistance from the City. In addition, those purchasing in City-assisted developments may be eligible to receive additional assistance, the list of developments can be located at: www.sjhousing.org/program/HBList.html
- Normally, the borrower and any co-borrower(s) cannot have owned a home as a principal residence for the past three years. An exception is allowed for a “displaced homemaker” or a single parent who, while married, owned a home with his or her spouse.
- Normally, the borrower, other household member(s), and any other co-borrowers must have a minimum 600 credit score. Also, the maximum housing cost-to-income ratio is 43% (the minimum housing ratio is 28%), and the maximum total debt-to-income ratio is 48%. The first mortgage cannot contain a “negative amortizing” feature. In addition, the homebuyer’s income for the first loan must be “fully documented.”
- The total amount financed (including non-City loans) cannot exceed 102% of the sales price.
- All homes must be “owner occupied” for the life of the loan and “cash-out” refinances of your first mortgage are allowed only when the total combined liens are less than or equal to 90% of the fair market value at the time of proposed refinance. In addition, the City will subordinate its loan to “cash-out” refinancings no more than once every five years.
- Borrowers may not have greater than $50,000 in liquid assets at the close of escrow.
- A minimum household size of two persons is eligible to purchase a three-bedroom home and a three person household is eligible to purchase a four bedroom home.

- A property inspection by a City Housing Inspector may be required and the home must meet Housing Quality Standards as defined by the Housing Department and comply with the City's local, state and federal building codes. In addition, the Department may conduct a lead based paint test for properties built prior to 1978. If the home contains chipping lead based paint or does not meet the local building code, the property will not be eligible.
- Borrowers can purchase single-family homes, town homes, and condominiums with a maximum purchase price of $732,000. In addition, the property must be located within the municipal boundaries of San José.
- The seller of the home must occupy the property as a primary residence or the home must be vacant. Properties, being occupied by tenants, at the time the property is listed for sale on the market, are not eligible. The Housing Department will require the seller to sign an occupancy affidavit.
- Household members are people who occupy the residence full-time, member's must receive over 50% in support from the applicant, and must be claimed on the tax returns as a dependent. The guideline applies to relatives who are not immediate family members (i.e. nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, etc...).
- Borrowers may be represented by any lender of their choosing. However, the City has compiled a List of Lenders who have actively participated in previous City-down payment programs. The list can be viewed at: <http://www.sjhousing.org/program/HB/LenderList.pdf>
- The program is approved through CalHFA utilizing the name CalHOME.
- Comply with the Affordable Housing Cost Limit:

Your monthly housing costs cannot exceed an "Affordable Housing Cost" limit. Total monthly expenses for property taxes, insurance, homeowner association dues, loan principal and interest payments, utilities (other than phone) and maintenance and repair currently cannot exceed $2,708 for a one-bedroom units, $3,048 for a two-bedroom units, $3,385 for three-bedroom units, and $3,654 for four-bedroom units.
